Research for: Elinor Wonders Why "Owl Girl" ep. #103
Polish Draft dated Jan. 17, 2019

General notes:

- We will note references to brand names. Free speech laws allow you to make those references but internal considerations might dictate that you make them generic; we will not say "clear" or "not clear." Once we note them, you decide if you want to mention a brand name product or not. Every project has a different policy on using brand names in dialogue.
- On the other hand, if we can tell that your intention was for the product name to be fictional, we check to see if it is or not. We assess your intention and proceed with either "reference to the brand name xxx" or "we've checked and we find xxx."
- References to actual products, businesses, etc. may need consideration given contractual obligations. You might need to change them if you have a product placement agreement with a competitor.
- Derogatory references in dialogue may merit attention. We will flag these and production should consult with counsel on them.
- If no brand name or business name is noted (e.g. "bottle of mustard"/"ice cream shop"), we presume that you will advise us if you need fictional names to feature or contact information for obtaining permission to show actual product names, logos, etc.
- Permission is needed if you feature in artwork any business names, copyrighted items, brand names, identifiable artwork from another source, etc.
- We check sound-alike spellings (Daley, Dailey, Daly, etc.).
