Pinkie on the One by Josh Haber

Pinkie sits in the middle of the lunchroom, spinning her chair around and around between a group of tables, trying to eat with as many people as possible. “I LOVE LUNCHTIME!” Rainbow Dash walks a bit too close to the fray and loses her tray, only managing to save her meal in a feat of athleticism. She asks if anyone else has had trouble dealing with “Hurricane Pinkie.” Applejack remembers Pinkie helping Granny in the cafeteria. CUT TO Granny explaining how to gently fold cookie batter. Pinkie stirs so fast her spoon is a blur. Applejack tries biting into a cookie and nearly loses a tooth. Rarity remembers making a big “Go Team” banner for a football game. CUT TO her telling Pinkie that she can use as much glitter as she wants. Pinkie shakes her glitter in time to a GO! FIGHT! WIN! mantra, covering the banner in so much glitter, the football team can’t even bust through it. Fluttershy remembers decorating for a dance. CUT TO Pinkie blowing up balloons with a rhythmic, BREATH-TIE-SNAP until there are so many balloons there isn’t room to dance. Applejack wonders aloud if there is anything that Pinkie’s over-exuberance would be good for. Rainbow Dash thinks she might know and we MATCH CUT from Pinkie spinning around and around in the middle of the group of lunch tables to Pinkie spinning around and around behind a rock and roll drum set. The others look on as Pinkie busts out a crazy drum solo that hits every drum at least twice and the cymbals three times. Finally, Pinkie Ponys-Up as she grabs the cymbals, panting like Animal from the Muppets. “This. Is. GREAT!” Applejack turns to Rainbow Dash, “What in the world made you think of the drums.” “Easy,” Dash responds, “I need a drummer.” Rainbow Dash hits a power chord on her guitar as we CUT TO BLACK.
