

For into song notes, do some drifts over ext. streets/ SS's building. X-diss into her bedroom/ apartment.
Pan/ Follow a beam of light that shines on her bed up to the lump that is SS under the covers

Verse 1:

Sunset-

Wake up in the morning - SS's hand shoots out and smacks the alarm
And I pull the cover over my head (hey-hey-hey), she pulls the covers back over herself background chant (the week is starting, week is starting)
I gotta get it moving – alarm buzzes again
But I'd rather stay here instead (hey-hey-hey), she sits up, messy hair- groggy background chant (school is calling, c/u alarm clock SS's smacks it and we match cut to TS' hand smacking her alarm school is calling) TS stands quickly, gets out of bed right away

Pre-chorus:

Twilight -

Cut to TS's bathroom her hair is messed up she tries to put it to rights, looking a little frazzled about it- also have her pulling on clothes, brushing teeth etc
My hair's a disaster, don't know what to do
But I need to move faster, to make it through This crazy morning that's got me confuuuuuuused – Mirror/ medicine cabinet POV mid -way through
'confused' she closes the door to it- it's re-opened and TS is replaced by a sleepy messy SS, still brushing her teeth her hair is still messed up
background chant over "confused" (clock is racing, time is wasting, mind's in circles, brain is spacing) SS spits out her toothpaste, shakes her hair with her hand a bit, gives herself "good enough" fingers guns and exits

Chorus:

Twilight/Sunset together Go to Split Screen

Girls will lip sync to the chorus'

Everywhere that I go – Girls walk out of their front doors at cam
Everything that I do
I can't shake these MONDAY BLUES- Sky opens up and dumps rain on them- TS pulls out an umbrella- SS just hunches her shoulders
Cuz' somedays i can't find a way- change angle, more c/u as they sing/ emote
Out of this haze
Hope I'll be ok-

Transition back into single screen- TS has been running for the bus

Verse 2:

Twilight-

Just can't seem to get it right- she misses the bus
A cloud is hanging over me (hey-hey-hey)- on hey hey- wind blows away her umbrella background chant (rain is falling, rain is falling)
I wish it was the weekend, cuz you know that's where I'd rather be(hey-hey-hey)- after an annoyed beat pulls out a spare umbrella and sweater (or just sweater) background chant (friday's calling, friday's calling)- transition to SS exiting Sugarcube Corner with a cup of to-go coffee. She's juggling a bunch of stuff in her hands (books, phone, coffee etc)

Pre-chorus:

Sunset -

I wonder why things won't go my way- she bumps into someone- everything spills-
Or if i'll ever make it through the day-- SS just sighs and wrings out shirt

I hope this feeling won't lead me astraaaaaaaaay- back inside she tries to get another tea...but her wallet is empty background chant over "astray" (you'll get through it; you can do it; with your gals, there's nothing to it)

-She looks at her phone, sees phone wallpaper of photo of her friends- smiles a little but then sees the time and runs out of the shop.

Chorus:

Twilight/Sunset together – split screen

Everywhere that I go – in shot similar to first chorus they run full body down the street at cam (lip sync)

Everything that I do

I can't shake these MONDAY BLUES

Cuz' somedays i can't find a way- closer, similar shot to first chorus BG pans behind them

Out of this haze

Hope I'll be ok-

Bridge:

Twilight - Just when I feel like it might come crashing down-

Sunset - I can count on my friends to help me turn my mood around- Bring them together in front of the school- with a moving BG split screen that meets in the middle and merges to become one screen. WTF? We'll explain it in the hand off.

BREAK:

Twilight/Sunset

With my gals there's nothing to it!

Double Chorus:

Twilight/Sunset together – sunlight breaks out clouds clear

Everywhere that I go- they laugh link arms and start inside the school

With everything that I do

I'll say goodbye to the MONDAY BLUES- int school they walk down the hall singing to each other

Cuz' I've got my friends with me - one by one the other girls join them- each is a mess in their own way

And the sunshine is all I see.

RT- runny mascara, soaking wet, 2 different shoes

FSH- ripped clothes and scratches- bird in her hair

RD- Zips in super fast- hits the lockers- we see he shoes are smoking having been burnt up, toes exposed

PP- has a hat or wig that looks like her regular hair- underneath she has straight hair-

AJ- not sure yet- we can brain storm in the hand off

Everywhere that I go

With everything that I do

The world feels so fresh and new

Cuz' I've got my friends with me

And those blues are ancient history.- they all laugh together at their bad Monday
