APPLE FAMILY REUNION

Every year Granny Smith hosts the Apple Family Reunion at Sweet Apple Acres, but this year she's decided to hand over the reins to Applejack. Applejack is honored and wants the reunion to be the best one the family has ever had. But in her efforts to improve upon everything and throw the perfect party, she unknowingly ends up stripping the event of all the things that made it special to the Apple clan. Applejack is devastated when the reunion begins and it seems that no one is having a very good time. Thinking it's because she hasn't done enough to make the event memorable, she sets out to go the extra mile. In the process, she accidentally sets off a chain reaction that results in her knocking down a barn, destroying several apple carts and leveling several rows of apple trees. But rather than declaring the reunion a total bust, the Apple family joins forces to raise a new barn, fix the apple carts, and replant the damaged trees, having a great time in the process. Everyone agrees that this has been the best family reunion in ages. In the end, Applejack is reminded that the most important ingredient to a successful family reunion is the family in attendance and learns she can be a great leader too.
