PINKIE PRIDE

Premise by Jayson Thiessen

Pinkie Pie has always been to top party-planner and all round silly pony and morale officer for Ponyville (and perhaps even all Equestria). However, that status becomes challenged when a new party pony comes to Ponyville. CHEESE SANDWICH is beating Pinkie to the punch and putting on bigger and better parties for the Ponyvillians. He's even challenging Pinkie Pie on fourth-wall breaking gags and silly behavior, stepping on her punch lines and acting even funnier and more outlandish than her!

Pinkie reacts by stepping up her game, trying to maintain her goofball party-animal superiority. But at every turn, Cheese Sandwich is there; showing her up and getting all the laughs that normally go to her. Pinkie starts to get jealous and even a bit resentful. Her friends try to console her, and remind her that she will always be the funniest and silliest pony in their eyes. But that's not enough for Pinkie. She decides to confront Cheese Sandwich and challenges him to a "Goof-Off" to prove once and for all who is the silliest party pony of all!

An epic battle ensues, as each pony tries to be silly and weirder than the other. It's a close race, but in the end Pinkie pulls out all the stops with a show-stopping move that she can only perform once. When it's all said and done, Cheese Sandwich admits defeat, and also admits that he's actually a huge fan of Pinkie Pie. He was once a sad, depressed pony until he attended one of her parties. He was inspired by Pinkie Pie to cheer up and learn to be a happier pony. He wants to be just like her and was not trying to steal her thunder; he really just wanted to impress her and live up to the amazing example she set for him. After this revelation, Pinkie Pie and Cheese Sandwich become fast friends and work together on a joint party for all of Ponyville that includes a rousing duet between the two party ponies.
