MAUDE PIE

Premise by Noelle Benvenuti

Pinkie Pie's sister Maude is coming to town to celebrate her birthday and Pinkie Pie can't wait. Not only does Pinkie Pie get to plan her sister's birthday (which they usually celebrate at Rock Farm with their parents), but she also gets to introduce Maude to her friends, and Pinkie Pie knows they will love her sister just as much as she does. Twilight, Applejack, Rainbow Dash, Rarity, and Fluttershy are equally excited and have promised to entertain Maude and show her around Ponyville while Pinkie Pie plans her sister's birthday party.

However, when Maude arrives, the ponies are shocked at how different she is from Pinkie Pie. While Pinkie Pie's excitement is overflowing as she eagerly greets her sister and introduces Maude to her friends, Maude hardly seems excited or eager at all. The ponies hope to make a good impression on Pinkie Pie's sister and make her feel welcome in Ponyville, but Maude's introverted, blasé attitude catches them off guard.

After a brief tour of Ponyville, Pinkie Pie leaves her sister with her friends to start planning the party. Twilight, Applejack, Rainbow Dash, Rarity, and Fluttershy know how important it is to Pinkie Pie that they befriend her sister, but the harder they try to get to know her, the more awkward and uncomfortable the situation becomes. When Pinkie Pie asks her friends what they think of her sister, they hate to admit it, but they're just not clicking.

Pinkie Pie is devastated, but determined to make her friends love Maude as much as she does. In an effort to make her friends and her sister get along, Pinkie Pie attempts to change Maude to make her more likeable, putting her sister through all kinds of ridiculous tasks, but nothing seems to work. Feeling defeated, Pinkie Pie decides to cancel the party and take her sister back to Rock Farm to celebrate her birthday there.

On the train home, Pinkie Pie apologizes for everything she put her sister through. Maude tells Pinkie Pie she'd do anything for her because she loves her. She's just sorry she couldn't find a way to become close friends with Pinkie's best pals. Pie and Maude reach the Rock Farm and discover that Pinkie Pie's friends have beaten them there and are throwing a surprise birthday party for Maude! Twilight, Applejack, Rainbow Dash, Rarity, and Fluttershy tell Maude how great they think she is, and after everything she did to try and make Pinkie Pie happy they see what a big heart she has. They realize that though they may not have much in common and may never become the best of friends, the love they all have for Pinkie Pie is what makes them "click," and that's enough.
