DO PRINCESSES DREAM OF MAGIC SHEEP?

Premise Revised by Jayson Thiessen & Jim Miller

A Luna-centric episode. Once day is done in Equestria and all the ponies have gone to sleep, Luna raises the moon and her tenure as Princess of the night begins. She makes her rounds, surveying the dreams of her sleeping subjects, ensuring that all is in order. That night, it seems an unusual number of ponies are having nightmares. Through her investigations, she discovers that the Baku, an elephant-like being, has entered her dream realm and is feasting on the fear energy generated by the nightmares. Luna knows full well that the Baku is not a menace to be confronted alone, but her own hubris compels her to do just that very thing. For the first time in untold centuries, she is defeated as the Baku uses Luna's own fears against her! Beaten and bruised, Luna has to swallow her pride and ask for help from the Mane 6, seeking them out in their own dreams. This newly assembled Dream Squad receives some special dream training from Luna before they confront the beast. Using their unique dream world skills, the ponies are able to banish the Baku, and pleasant dreams are restored to the ponies of Equestria. With the battle won, Luna admits to the M6 that even though she is used to dealing with her own conflicts alone, there are some battles that can't be won without the help of your friends.
