APPLEJACK’S DAY OFF

Premise by Neal Dusedau

Applejack hasn’t taken a day off from the farm in two years and she likes it that way. We follow her quickly through an entire day and see how much work she does. The Mane 6 have been watching her-- They can’t believe she’s doing all that work AND helping Twilight with all her Map and Princess duties. They suggest she take today off, but she can’t, it’s a big day at the farm. She’s expecting a delivery of special apple seeds that must be planted ASAP. Twilight gets Granny Smith and Big Mac to force her to take a vacation day, promising that the other members of the mane 6 will handle all her work.

Twilight and Rainbow Dash take Applejack to a super fancy spa, where Applejack struggles with the concept of R&R. Soon she’s helping the masseuse rub clients. The gang won’t give up on her and come up with different ideas of relaxation, but Applejack isn’t able to do any of them. Meanwhile, Pinkie, Rarity, and Fluttershy are running the farm... and it’s not going well. These special MAGICAL apple seeds can MOVE and THINK. They’re driving our ponies crazy trying to plant them.

Applejack’s struggles with relaxation are interrupted by an emergency! The farm is a disaster and they need Applejack’s help to fix it. As Applejack leads the gang in rounding up the crazy seeds, they see a sense of calm come over her. Twilight learns that Applejack is relaxed when she’s working hard and making a difference. It’s being idle that makes her crazy. Twilight promises to never push Applejack to take a day off again—it’s too stressful!
