HEROES AND HORSESHOES

Premise by Michael Vogel

The CMC's have all of the young ponies of Ponyville obsessing over Hunt for the Horseshoe (basically Capture the Flag with... you know... horse shoes). Applebloom, Sweetie Belle and Scootaloo each captain a team. The competition is fierce, but fun. Scootaloo's team hasn't won a game yet, but she's got the perfect solution: Rainbow Dash. Scoot asks Dash to give her team some pointers. With Dash's experience as a Wonderbolt, Scoot is SURE she could give her team the edge they need. Things go great! With a few suggestions from Rainbow Dash, Scoot's team wins! Not to be outdone, Applebloom asks Applejack and Sweetie Belle runs to Rarity who each decide to do a little coaching of their own. Things quickly get out of hand. The game starts to resemble guerilla warfare more than fun and games. Each victory leads to more elaborate and over the top tactics until it feels like Ponyville is in the middle of a full scale war! The other players go to the CMC's and say they aren't having fun anymore. One by one they quit the teams. Ultimately the CMC's have to pony up and tell the adults they are disappointed in their behavior. They all learn that while grown ups aren't always perfect, our imperfect friends will always be willing to listen to us.
