A FLURRY OF EMOTIONS

Premise by Sammie Crowley & Whitney Wetta

Twilight can't wait to spend a whole day with her niece, Flurry Heart! She's determined to be the most fun aunt ever and has prepared a list of activities that Flurry is sure to love. After all, they're all Twilight's favorite things so how can Flurry not love them?! But, just in case, Twilight's bringing a secret weapon that will ensure Flurry has a fun day: Pinkie Pie!

While Cadence and Shining Armor go on a much needed date (or nap - they haven't decided), Twilight and Pinkie take Flurry Heart out for a day on the town! First thing on Twilight's fun-genda is an orchestra performance. Woop woop! Obviously, this isn't as fun for Flurry, who cries during the performance until Pinkie helpfully jumps in and starts an interpretive dance party. Flurry laughs and gives Pinkie slobbery baby kisses. Twilight is grateful but can't help but be envious. Seeing Twilight struggling, Pinkie gently suggests Twilight try to Pinkie-it-up. You know, be a little more silly and spontaneous. Twilight thinks it's a great idea and rips up her fun-genda! Then responsibly magics the pieces into a trash can. Flurry claps and tries to magic a stray piece in as well. Twilight coaches her and helps her get it in.

As the trio tackles spontaneous activities, Twilight tries to one-up Pinkie each time. At the pond, Pinkie tugs a laughing Flurry Heart along on a raft. She hands the rope to Twilight who grabs it, flies in the air and zips around at full-speed. Flurry cries as she bounces up and down on the wakes then vanishes, re-appearing in Pinkie's arms. After several more failed attempts (each where Twilight tries to one-up the fun Pinkie is creating) Twilight suspects she's not going to be Flurry's fun aunt like she'd hoped. When Flurry magics some flowers in the shape of a heart over to Pinkie Pie, Twilight knows somepony's already filled that role: Pinkie Pie.

When they return to the castle, Cadance asks Twilight how their day went. Twilight says not great – she didn't exactly nail the whole “fun aunt” thing. Then, Flurry magics her bottle over to herself and Cadance gasps. Flurry's magic has gotten so much better! Twilight says she may have taught Flurry a few things. Shining Armor says it's been nearly impossible to help Flurry control her magic (and gestures to the wall behind Flurry, covered with milk bottle stains). Twilight's a great teacher! Twilight gasps, that's it! Maybe she isn't the fun aunt, she's the teaching aunt! And if you ask her, that's even better!!

Twilight and Pinkie bid their farewells to Cadance, Shining Armor and Flurry, both overjoyed to have a special bond with Flurry. As they go, they hear Flurry babble, “Twi...ley”. Twilight bursts, Flurry's first word! And it was her name! Talk about the cherry on top of the best day ever sundae! Shining Armor whispers to Cadance – isn't that like, Flurry's fifth word? Cadance whispers, “Just let her have this.”

THE END!
