

CARMEN GOT EXPELLED! : Character Sides

THE BARON

Age: 48

Billionaire Playboy

Personality:

The Baron is a wealthy dilettante with too much money and too much time on his hands who thought it would be fun to buy Saint Mary Maria's, since he had so much fun playing polo and sipping champagne cocktails back in his school days. Unfortunately, Gnarly has the place so tightly wound that all the fun has been sucked out of it! Still, since he doesn't want to be bogged down with the tedium of day-to-day administration duties, The Baron lets Gnarly have it her way... most of the time. Meanwhile, he keeps his eye on the big picture. Admitting Carmen was a good start, but there's more work to be done to enrich these young minds! Big screen TV's in the lockers! Celebrity guest teachers from his favorite action movies! Space Shuttle rides for kids on the Honor Roll! This is what school should be!

When he's not focused on his outlandish views on education, the flighty Baron tries to figure out what to do with all that time and money of his. (Current ideas are: dig a tunnel to the center of the earth, buy a mountain and have someone climb it for him, become a Batman-esque superhero, invent a 27th letter for the alphabet, discover what's really in "nougat", etc...)

Luckily for Carmen, the Baron has taken a shine to her and can overrule any punitive decisions that Gnarly makes regarding her fragile future.

With an untraceable and charming South American accent, no one knows exactly where he's from.

BARON SIDES

1. Baron

Baron is looking at a controversial mural Carmen just painted.

Truly exceptional! This is EXACTLY what I saw in my MIND. Oh, and it brightens up this dreary old foyer . Outstanding job, Carmen. Don't you think so, Miss Gnarly? (then) Miss Gnarly, why are you foaming at the mouth?

2. Baron

A butler walks up to the Baron and tells him his helicopter is ready. The Baron TEARS OFF HIS SHIRT, revealing a JET PACK.

(MACHO) Helicopter? Ha! That would be the coward's way! (then;) I knew I was right about you, Carmen! Keep it up! TALLY-HO!

3. Baron

Carmen hears the Baron crying and asks if he's ok.

(FUNNY WEEPING) Hmm? Oh, Carmen. I'm afraid not. Someone has stolen my warthog. What kind of man does a thing like that? No man! Not even a manatee would take someone's warthog! The interloper will be brought to justice. This I swear!

4. Baron

The Baron explains his family's history with warthogs.

(SMOOTH LIKE CORINTHIAN LEATHER) You see, Hamlet comes from a long line of domesticated genius warthogs. Our families go back a long way. We depended on them for financial advice, political counsel and fashion tips. Hamlet (choked back sob) even picked out this tie!

5. Baron

Heart to heart talk with Carmen in the infirmary.

(FATHERLY) Just rest. The important thing is that Hamlet is back safely. I'm proud of you Carmen.
